Charles-Town, May 30, 1770.

BENJAMIN MATHEWES, Merchant, in Trade-Street (next Door to Messrs. Mansell, Corbett, & Comp. and nearly opposite to Samuel Prieau, Esq; Controller of the Country Duties) a Subscriber to the Resolutions entered into by the Inhabitants of this Province the 22d of July, 1769, having, in January last, imported sundry Goods from London (contained in Fifty Packages) inhibited by the said Resolutions; having also voluntarily agreed to store the same, till a general Importation should take Place, by the following Instrument, viz.

"I, the Subscriber, having received sundry Goods from London, marked M, in a Diamond, No. 1 to 50; and as it is contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the Resolutions, entered into by the Inhabitants of this Province, that I should dispose of them before the Acts complained of are repealed, do voluntarily agree to store the same, at my Loss and Risque; and I do hereby promise, to see them forth-coming to the General Committee, when a general Importation takes Place in this Province. January Tenth-third, 1770."

(SIGNED) BENJAMIN MATHEWES.

And, upon being required to produce the same to the Committee of Inspection on the 2d Instant, having acknowledged, that many of the said Goods, so agreed to be stored as aforesaid, had been opened and disposed of, alledging that the same had been done by his Mother, Ann Mathewes (who is also a Subscriber to the Resolutions) during his Absence in the Country: And they, the said Ann & Benjamin Mathewes having been ineffectually, though repeatedly, applied to, to make proper Satisfaction to the Public, for such shameful Breach of their sacred Contracts: And the said Ann continuing to open and dispose of the said Goods, in manifest Violation of the said Resolution: The GENERAL COMMITTEE, after all possible Lenity and Forbearance shewn, find themselves reduced to the Necessity of advertising the said

ANN & BENJAMIN MATHEWES,

as VIOLATORS OF THE RESOLUTIONS;

as Persons audaciously countervailing the united Sentiments of the whole Body of the People, not only in this, but all the Northern Provinces, and preferring their own little private Advantage to the general Good of AMERICA.

And as, according to the last Article of the afore-mentioned Resolutions (subscribed by the said Violators) it was agreed, that every such Violator should be treated with the utmost Contempt: So the General Committee presume, that the above Publication of Names, will be alone sufficient to excite the same; and to caution all Persons whatever, who have subscribed the said Resolutions, against having any commercial Dealings whatever with the said ANN & BENJAMIN MATHEWES, until public Notice shall be given of their Compliance with the reasonable Terms that have been proposed to them:—all when their Affairs must declare them to be obnoxious and unworthy of the Confidence of their Country, and unworthy of the least Confidence or Esteem.

Messrs. WILLIAM GLEN & SON, having also been guilty of a Breach of the Resolutions, which they have represented as an Act of Inadvertence, rather than Design, did on the 16th Instant voluntarily subscribe the following Acknowledgement, viz.

"Whereas we, the Subscribers, did sign an Obligation to the General Committee of this Province, to keep a Bale of Checks in store, which we had imported contrary to the Resolutions, until a general Importation should take Place; but having, through Mistake, disposed of a few Pieces of them, we declare our Sorrow for the same; solemnly promising, that we will, in future, adhere strictly to the Resolutions. And we are ready and willing to deposit, in the public Stores, the Remainder of the said Checks, together with other Goods, or Cash, to the Amount of what we have disposed of."

(SIGNED) WILLIAM GLEN & SON.

Which, it is hoped, will be received as a sufficient Attonement for their Fault, and restore them to the Public's Favour and Confidence.

LONDON, APRIL 3.

Correspondent has favoured us with the following curious particulars: As your paper has an universal reputation, I take the earliest opportunity to convey, through the channel of it, a late transaction in a certain club, which plainly shews the members of it, corrupt as they are, will not do all the dirty work imposed on them, unless bribed every night. George Grenville has carried his point with a force that may convince the world of the truth of this. Formerly the judges in Westminster-hall had determined all disputes concerning elections; but as they were dependent upon the grand-masters, their decisions were commonly dictated by him: To remedy this evil, it was thought proper to refer the judgment of these matters to the club, who, as every one knows, resolves itself into a committee on these occasions, to hear the business at their bar; but when the leaders had accomplished their system of bribery and corruption, the majority being at their devotion, the fitting members were always those who were known to be men who were most compliant. We have had so many instances of such daring, illegal, and open violations of the constituents free and unanimous choice, that it is unnecessary to repeat particulars; it is enough, that the mode of deciding contested elections is to be altered.

The leading men of the club were so little aware of this unexpected blow, that they had no time or money to bribe sufficiently.—The bill was carried by a very great majority, in which were many pensioners and placemen. Lord North, it seems, lost the few votes he had left; and was so much amazed at the defection of his friends, that not knowing what he did, he staid in the house till Rigby pulled him out by main strength, for fear of exposing his weakness and consternation. This victory over an irreconcilable and shifting president, is looked upon as the prelude of the restoration of the people's rights, and may give an universal satisfaction to all the friends of the constitution. One may judge of the abilities of the present leaders, by the evasive and silly answers of the grand master to the remonstrance presented to him. This French verse is very applicable to the president:

Tel brule au second rang, qui se fust au premier.

He has been deserted by his creatures almost at the first onset; and he seems no more acquainted with mankind than with the affairs of his department. The want of courage and judgment in a general, must ruin an army of lions; but a collection of jackalls, with an ast at the head, can never hope for success; even such were ashamed of their commander, and revolted.

APRIL 4.

The privy council summoned to meet on Monday at St. James's is postponed to this day.

It is confidently said, that a coalition is in agitation, and will now speedily take place.

We hear that the agitations which a great patriot received some time ago, in a certain assembly, at the mention of a commitment, shook his nervous frame so much, that he has recovered much more slowly than usual from the fit of the gout, into which it immediately threw him. It is doubted whether it will not have a lasting effect for the future on the spirit of his elocution.

The famous cause between Mr. Onslow and Mr. Horne, will not come on this day, as is said, but to-morrow, this being only the first day of the assizes.

We hear a great personage has desired a conference with Lord Camden, on an affair of importance; and a report is circulated, that this upright lawyer will be reinstated in the possession of the seals.

On Easter Monday his Majesty will review the two regiments of light dragoons, commanded by the Generals Elliot and Bourgoigne, on Wimbledon common.

APRIL 5.

A cabinet council is appointed to be held to-morrow, when it is thought the time of proroguing the parliament will be fixed.

In examining the state of the nation on Tuesday night, we are informed, the sum of one hundred seventy-two thousand six hundred and five pounds appear to have been issued from the civil list revenues towards maintaining the household.

The ministerial measure of surrounding the metropolis with large military encampments at this critical juncture, with the late orders sent to Scotland for the troops to be in readiness to march at a minute's warning, has given occasion for more alarming apprehensions than even those founded on illegal expulsion.

It was this morning current at the west end of the town, that some capital resignations among the ministerial party will soon unavoidably take place, in consequence of certain late unexpected and popular decisions in the lower house.

This morning a meeting of several of the chief personages in the minority, was held at Earl Temple's house in Pall-Mall, on affairs of importance.

We are credibly informed, that a master-stroke is preparing to be struck by the chiefs of the minority, against the power and influence of their opponents, by refusing all kinds of paper currency, and even bank-notes; which measure, if once adopted in the city, will produce consequences easily foreseen.

In the lower room of the Robinhood society on Monday night, on the state of the nation, the majority of Friday last became again the minority, the numbers being considerably above 500 to 70 odd.

We are well assured, that notwithstanding a certain gentleman publicly acknowledged the Mile-end remonstrance as his own, it is the sole production of Mrs. Macaulay, and breathes the very spirit of that lady's zeal and talents.

Yesterday Dennis de Berdt, Esq; and Colonel Isaac Barré, joint agents for the colonies, received some interesting instructions from their American constituents, in order to be laid before the committee and board of trade and plantations.

A foreigner of distinction speaking the other day in a coffee-house concerning the present state of politics in England, observed, that he could have no idea of a higher degree of slavery than that in which the British nation is now involved, notwithstanding our boasted liberty, when every national and beneficial enquiry concerning men and things was certain to be stifled by a majority.

We have the pleasure to inform our readers that notwithstanding her Majesty did not appear at court on Sunday, she is in perfect health, and the fifth month of her pregnancy.

Ten thousand pounds are allowed annually by the government for what is called private uses; a great part of which has, it is presumed, for four years past been allotted to ministerial scribbles.

APRIL 6.

On Tuesday night a motion was made in the lower club room, for the whole assembly to address Mr. Allworthy, praying him, for the future, either to keep within the bounds of his annual salary, or, if any expensive occurrence should unavoidably happen within the year, that he would be pleased to let the gentlemen of the lower club room know it, and they would immediately give him such further sum as might appear to them adequate to such extraordinary expence. But they did not like to have such lumping sums as 500,000, to be intruded and obtruded upon them; all at once. Debates ran high, and we had a fine riot, which continued without the least intermission for an hour and a half. At last we broke up, re infello.

On Tuesday next, it is said, both houses of parliament will adjourn for the Easter holidays; and meet again on Monday the 13d instant. The reason of meeting after the holidays is on account of the budget, which, it is said, consists of only a lottery; and the consideration of some business relative to a forfeited estate in Scotland. It is expected the parliament will be prorogued about the 10th or 11th of May.

The military gentlemen at Chatham, are indefatigable in their endeavours to prevent a remonstrance from the county of Kent.

BOSTON, MAY 14.

LETTERS from New-York and Philadelphia intimating, that it has been reported in those capitals, that the merchants of this town determined to break through their agreement and impose full goods, notwithstanding the continuance of the tea duty; we can assure the public that nothing can be further from truth, nor has the spirit of the trade at any time appeared more determined. The bulk of the goods which came contrary to agreement, though shipped by persons who had not signed, are now put on board the Lydia, Capt. Scott, and do not fill the hold by a fourth part. No one beside the old importers has yet had the stupidity to act so much in opposition, to the sense of their country as to persist in violation, of its unanimous resolution. We believe that our trade with Great-Britain will not be open till the whole of the late revenue acts is repealed.

NEW-YORK, MAY 14.
Saturday last the Albany, Capt. Richards, and the Hope, Capt. Smith, arrived here from London in eight weeks; and we can with much pleasure inform our Brethren in the neighbouring colonies, that there is not a piece of any sort of goods on board either of the above vessels contrary to the Non-Importation Agreement, nor indeed very little of any kind, their cargoes consisting of a few grind-stones, sail duck, and wool-cards.

It being publicly known here, that NATHANIEL ROGERS (one of the Boston merchants, who has all along refused to come into the non-importation agreement) was in town, and it being suspected that his design in visiting this city, was to use his endeavours to prevail on the merchants here, to break through, and put an end to, their agreement: His effigy was exhibited last Thursday evening, hanging on a gallows, with labels on the back and breast of it, expressing his crime; it was attended by some thousand spectators; who, after parading through part of the city, went from the Coffee-house to his lodgings, about 9 o'clock, in order to pay their respects to himself, in which they were disappointed, as he dined out of town, and had not yet returned.—They then proceeded through several of the principal streets to the Common, where the effigy and gallows were committed to the flames, amidst the joyful acclamations of the people, who immediately dispersed, and returned to their respective homes.—The whole was conducted with such good order and decorum, that not the least mischief was done.—About 13 o'clock a number of persons called at his lodgings again to which he had not then returned, as he had received intimation of what had passed in the city and left a letter, which was soon after forwarded to him; upon the receipt of it (we are informed) he immediately ordered a servant, about 2 o'clock in the morning, to bring out his carriage and baggage, and decamped for BOSTON.

The following is a copy of the letter which ROGERS received.
NEW-YORK, 10th of May, 1770, 10 o'clock at night.

NATHANIEL ROGERS,
“WHEREAS you have hitherto acted in opposition to your fellow merchants of the town of Boston (who, actuated by principles of liberty, did voluntarily enter into an agreement, not to import goods from Great-Britain, till the American grievances were redressed) and as you have by such your infamous conduct, rendered yourself obnoxious to the respectable inhabitants of this city, a great number of them called at your lodgings this evening, to know the reason for your conduct in this matter. As they had not the pleasure of seeing you, they take this opportunity to inform you, that it is their pleasure you depart this city within 24 hours from this time, or you may depend upon being visited in a more disagreeable manner, by
THE SONS OF LIBERTY.”

To the COMMITTEE of MERCHANTS, at NEW-YORK.
Gentlemen, Boston, April 30th, 1770.

“As several vessels have lately arrived here from London, and it has been industriously propagated to the disadvantage of the town, that the trade has been endeavouring to break thro' the Non-Importation Agreement, and have imported large quantities of goods, we take the earliest opportunity to acquaint you of the proceedings of the trade in consequence of these Arrivals.—In the course of this month, the captains Davies, Freeman, Briant, and others arrived from London, most of them having some goods, tho' none fully loaded. A meeting of all persons concerned in trade was immediately called, and as it appeared probable, that by the next vessel we might receive the news of the repeal of the act imposing duties on tea, glass, paper, and colours, which would open the trade, it was voted, and it was desired that all persons who had imported any goods contrary to agreement, would immediately deliver them to the committee of inspection, to be stored till advice should be received of the repeal, and the goods be released by a general vote of the trade; every importer was served with a copy of this vote, and the meeting adjourned to Wednesday last. In the mean time Capt. Scott arrived with the news of a bill being brought into the house of commons for a partial repeal, that the duties on glass, paper, and colours, was to be taken off, but that on tea to remain.—At the adjournment of the meeting it appeared, that as the act was not like to be totally repealed, the orders of the trade in general, remained unexecuted, and that some few persons, by giving their orders in a very loose manner, and others on the spot, to our surprise, imagining that this partial repeal would satisfy the Americans, had their goods shipped. The trade hereupon, unanimously voted, That every person who had imported any goods in the last vessels, would be desired immediately to reship them; and a committee was appointed to wait on them, and obtain their immediate answer.—The importers were at first unwilling to re-ship, and were desirous of storing them on the terms of the first vote; but as they were convinced their re-shipping them would be more satisfactory to the body of the people, they have voluntarily consented to ship them back to London, by the first vessels, except such articles as are allowed by agreement to be imported.—The tea is to be stored by the committee, and under their care, till a general importation shall take place.—Two vessels are put up in order to carry the goods back, captains Scott and Freeman; the former will perhaps sail this week, fully loaded with British manufactures, the other soon after, as the utmost care will be taken to dispatch them as soon as possible.—Thus, gentlemen, you see that the trade are determined, steadily to adhere to the agreement they voluntarily agreed into, and not to give over, till the great object of their pursuit is obtained. We doubt not the other colonies are as firmly resolved, in case any goods arrive, to pursue the like steps, and hope, that as we have hitherto been united, in our exertions for the common good, we shall continue to be so; which may be a happy means, under Providence, to secure to us those invaluable rights and privileges which our ancestors dearly purchased, and which, we, their descendants, are under the strongest obligations to defend. That the blessings of the British constitution, according to revolution principles, and true English liberty, may be the portion of America to the latest posterity, is the sincere and ardent wish of, Gentlemen, Your most obedient and humble servants.”

NEW-YORK, MAY 17.

Yesterday afternoon an express came to town from Philadelphia, and brought a letter from the committee of merchants there, to the committee of merchants in this city; informing them, that they shall continue the non-importation agreement; provided the same is adhered to, in the other colonies.—And we hear that the express is to proceed immediately to Boston, with a letter (of the same nature) to the committee of merchants there; so that we are in great hopes, the colonies will be unanimous, in continuing their agreements; as it will be the only effectual means, to ward off inglorious bondage, and obtain a redress of all our grievances.

PHILADELPHIA, MAY 17.

Extract of a letter from London, brought by Capt. Carr.
“The conversation now is, that it is under the contemplation of the treasury to come into an accommodation with the East-India company, as to the duty on tea, in the following manner.
“It is proposed to repeal the statute, which allows a drawback of seven-pence halfpenny per pound on tea shipped to North-America; and to repeal the act, which imposes a duty of three pence in the pound, payable in America; by which, the revenue will be benefited four-pence halfpenny in the pound, and a commercial expedient, be adopted for the total repeal of the American revenue act.”

NEW-YORK, MAY 21.

The following is the per-cript of a letter from a gentleman in London, to his friend in this city, dated the 28th of March.
“I had forgot, when I concluded this letter, to tell you that large quantities of goods have been lately shipped, and are now daily shipping for Virginia, Maryland, Rhode-Island, Fowling and Montreal, which will doubtless, circulate all through the colonies; the greatest part of what we shipped, and shipping, are by STRANGERS unaccustomed to the trade, so that unless the old traders should order goods, the trade will of course circulate through a new channel.”

ESTIMATE of all GOODS exported from England to the colonies in North-America, from the 15th of December, 1767, to the 15th of December, 1769; distinguishing the export to each colony.

The above estimate enclosed in a letter from a gentleman in England, to his friend in New-York; as being collected from the books of the respective Custom-houses in England, from the year 1767, to 1769 inclusive.

† It is to be observed here, that the merchants of North-Carolina have not entered into any Non-Importation Agreement. The Agreement there, is by planters only, not to purchase. About one half of the goods arrived here, are now in store, or sent back to England.

THE Subscriber desires and advises, all Persons indebted to NATHANIEL BLUNDELL, by Bond or Note (Book Debt excepted) who lately kept a Store at Beau-Bluff, and at Salt-catcher, to pay the same, without Delay, as he is fully and absolutely determined, to sue for every Debt that shall remain unpaid by the 20th Day of June next.

ROBERT RAPER, Assignee.

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of Capt. JOHN CATTELL deceased, for Estate sold on the 21st of August 1769, payable the 1st of March last, are desired not to fail making Payment by the 1st Day of June next, to DANIEL DONOVAN, in Charles-Town.

LAST Tuesday Morning, about Nine o'Clock, the elegant Marble Statue of that true Friend and undaunted Affessor of the Liberties of Britain and America, the Right Honourable WILLIAM PITT (done by Mr. Wilton, of London) was landed upon Charles-Elliott, Esq; his Wharf, amidst a vast Concourse of the Inhabitants, many of them of the first Rank and Consequence, who received it with three hearty Cheers, and, preceded by Music, after a Flag had been fixed upon the Case, drew it by Hand, in fifteen Minutes to a Shade, prepared for its Reception at the Armoury; where it is to remain, till the Foundation and Pedestal are raised whereon it is to be erected.—Nothing ever was conducted with greater Order, than this Procession; and (except some of the Lookers-on, who have been remarkable for distinguishing themselves upon too many Occasions) every one seemed highly pleased with the Respect that was shewn to the great Patriot, by such a Reception of his Statue.—All the Vessels in the Harbour, except three (one belonging to Leis, another to Dundas, &c.) displayed their Colours upon this Occasion; and St. Michael's Bells would have been rung, but were stopped out of Regard to Isaac Marzuck, Esq; a very worthy Member of this Community, who lives near that Church, and lay extremely ill.—When the Statue was lodged, the Inhabitants made a handsome Present to the Seamen belonging to the Ship; and their Thanks are due to the Owners, who have refused to receive any Freight for the Statue and Appurtenances, consisting of no less than 57 heavy Packages.

Last Saturday embarked for New-York, in the Sloop Sally, Capt. Schermerhorn, John Smith, Esq; of New-York, Mrs. and Misses Gordon, Lieutenant Bouchier, Mr. Benjamin Cattell—with the two Masters Holmes, Master Simmons, and another, to be educated at one of the Colleges in the Northern Colonies.

On Tuesday last about Noon, a Fire broke out in the Roof of Messrs. Dillon & Gray's Tavern; but by the timely Assistance of the Engines (although Water, for Want of more public Wells, was scarce) and some very active Persons, it was extinguished without any considerable Damage.—Had it happened at the same Hour in the Night, the Confusion would have been very great.

This Day his Honour the LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR, with his LADY, returned in good Health, from visiting some of the interior and frontier Parts of this Province.

Next Tuesday, is the Day to which the General Assembly of this Province stands prorogued.

A Correspondent desires to be informed, "if it is possible, that we are to have no Powder-Magazine within this Town"—He says, "he has been told so, and thunders at the Thought; as he does, when he considers the defenceless State of many capital Towns in North-America, particularly THIS, should a War break out with a foreign Enemy."

Yesterday embarked for Rhode-Island in the Sloop Roby, Capt. Earl, Charles Elliott, Esq; Mrs. Elliott, Mr. Andrew Rutledge, Merchant, Mrs. Rutledge, Mrs. Legers, and other Passengers.

This Day also embarked for Rhode-Island, in the Brigantine Smyth, Capt. Steel, Mr. Robert Smyth, Merchant, and Family, Mr. John Gaillard, Mrs. Harleston, Mrs. Farr, Jun. and other Passengers.—Mr. Smyth goes to reside at Newport.

To-morrow will also embark for Rhode-Island, in the Brigantine William & John, Capt. Rogers, Benjamin Smith, Esq; late and several Years Speaker of the Hon. Commons House of Assembly of this Province, with his whole Family.

And on Saturday Mr. Paul Townsend, Merchant, Mr. Thomas Hartley, of St. Paul's Parish, and others will embark for New-York, in the Sloop Charles-Town, Capt. Whitten.

Thirty-two Persons who went from this Place last Summer, to Rhode-Island, Philadelphia, New-York, or Boston, upon comparing Notes afterwards, found, that they carried no less a Sum out of the Province than 3500 Guineas, in Specie, chiefly in Half-Johannes and Dollars.—Three Families only, gone within these four Weeks, are said to have carried no less a Sum, also in Specie.—Well then may we complain of the Want of Coin, when it is drawn from us,

1. By the King's Duties being paid in Silver.
2. By the Trade with the Northern Colonies, who take a very inconsiderable Quantity of our Produce in Payment for their Goods.
3. By Sea Voyages to the same Colonies, for Health, a Change of Air, Pleasure, or Education.

Yesterday arrived here from Dominica, the Schooner Two Josephs, belonging to Colonel Joseph Glover, of this Province, which was run away with the 8th of March last, by Joseph Jordan, Thomas Darvills, Edmund James, and others, as advertised in this Paper of the 15th of that Month. The Negroes are also recovered and brought back: But Jordan, &c. remain to take their Trials in the West-Indies.

Yesterday died, after a very short Illness, Capt. Joseph Brown, late Master of the Ship Peter & Ann, of this Port.

The few Goods not allowed to be bought, by the Resolutions of this Province, that have been imported in the two last Ships from London, are put into the Committee's Stores.

Last Saturday a fine new Ship, Burthen about 1000 Barrels of Rice, built for the London Trade, was launched at Beaufort, Port-Royal.
